

CIX 2 (China - India Express II)

To meet the sustainable growth of cargo and demand on China – India trade, OOCL will launch CIX2 service to provide additional capacity and frequency between the regions.

CIX2 service deploys with 5 x 2,700 teu ships, which acts as a supplementary network to the existing China India Express (CIX) Service. The CIX2 service provide a fast, reliable and competitive service originating from the Yangtze River Economic Zone, where two of the busiest ports in China (Shanghai and Ningbo) are located in this region. Upon the launch of CIX2, it helps to strengthen OOCL network between China and India by expanding our coverage throughout the coastal China.
